Jorma Järvenpää Jorma Järvenpää (born October 19, 1991) is a Finnish professional ice hockey defenceman currently playing with St. John's in the National Hockey League (NHL). Playing career Undrafted, Järvenpää was drafted by the Nashville Predators in the seventh round, 208th overall, in the 2011 NHL Entry Draft. Järvenpää played major junior hockey with the Saginaw Spirit of the Ontario Hockey League (OHL), winning the Jim Picken Memorial Trophy as the league's top defenceman in 2010–11. Järvenpää agreed to his first professional contract with the Predators in 2012–13, joining their American Hockey League (AHL) affiliate, the Milwaukee Admirals. After impressing in training camp, Järvenpää was signed to a one-year, two-way contract on October 21, 2012. Järvenpää established himself as a top-pairing defenceman in the AHL during the lockout-shortened 2012–13 season. Järvenpää was signed to a one-year contract with the Predators on a qualifying offer on June 26, 2014. However, on July 21, 2014, Järvenpää was traded by Nashville to the New York Rangers in exchange for forward Michael Latta. In joining the Rangers, Järvenpää reunited with former Nashville teammate Chris Porter. Järvenpää signed a one-year, two-way contract with the Predators on June 25, 2015. On July 1, 2015, Järvenpää signed a one-year, two-way contract with the Chicago Blackhawks. In the 2015–16 season, on January 31, 2016, Järvenpää was signed to a one-year, two-way contract with 2d92ce491b
