"As the 2006 duck season draws to a close I wanted to drop you a quick note to say how pleased I am with my Deeks Duck Decoy Skins. I purchased my Deeks at the beginning of this season and have shot many ducks over them. I found that they are extremely light and pack into an incredibly small space which has allowed me to cover more territory and explore less accessible lakes,

They are fast and easy to set up and can be picked up in less time than conventional hard body decoys. Most important I found that they perform as well as the most detailed hard plastic body decoys.

It was common to have ducks land right in the decoy spread and start feeding. I even had a Pie Billed Grebe attack one of the decoys, that realism. If you ever produce a Canada Goose version I will be first in line to purchase them. Thanks for a great decoy,” DEEKS are the ONLY decoys to use when you hunt Ogden and Farmington Bay along the Great Salt Lake. They are so easy to carry! I would not trade one DEEK for a whole dozen of the bulky plastic decoys.”

I just got a package from Cabelas today and had to drop you a line. I had heard of Deeks from my Grandpa, who used them through out the 50's for a local walk in area and he always had nothing but good things to say about them.

After years of carrying 1-3 dozen of the typical plastic decoys into the same areas on my own hunting adventures, I finally decided it was time to try them out on my own. Of course, our season hasn't begun yet so I can only give you my impressions from tests in the bath tub at home.
